

Architecture to Implementation for a Major Retail Chain

Customer Success Story

CUSTOMER SUCCESS STORY

Architecture to Implementation for a Major Retail Chain

Background

The retail provider has a major Oracle technology footprint which includes significant investment in Oracle retail, database, Exadata and Oracle Financials.

LimePoint have been a trusted advisor for the customer for several years providing its expertise in these technology areas.

Challenges / Opportunities

- The customer required experience and skillset in leading the design, implementation and management of a large no of technical environments for the two business entities
- The customer was facing challenges with the setup of a DR environments for its business-critical applications and database

What Limepoint Did

- Architecture, design and Implementation of Oracle Retail Merchandising System (RMS),
- Warehouse Management System, Merchandise
- Financial Planning and Assortment planning system
- BCP & DR strategy design and implementation for critical business systems (Oracle Retail,
- Financials, Automatic Batch Schedulers,
- Warehouse Management System
- Database, Ebiz & tech stack consolidation, management, migrations and upgrades

Benefits Achieved

- A robust and tested business continuity and disaster recovery solution for business-critical applications
- Oracle License asset analysis and consolidation reduced the licensing costs for the customer
- Database and Infrastructure consolidation helped customer reduce its infrastructure costs
- Enterprise class architecture, design and implementation for critical applications enabled smooth operations with less issues

CONTACT US

 www.limepoint.com

 info@limepoint.com

LIMEPOINT